Ministry of Education Shares Resources
Retirement Functions

RESOURCES – There is a growing concern for the illicit drug overdose problem in our community. This fall, the district was involved in a community forum made up of health and education representatives and service agencies to bring awareness about the fentanyl crisis.

The Ministry of Education recently shared useful information and resources for parents about substance abuse and overdose awareness.

- How to deal/speak about substance abuse with your children
- Overdose awareness in BC

Please share these resources with your families and schools.
