MOTIONS – The Board dealt with the following motions from meetings held earlier in the month:

- The Board approved the 2017-18 School Calendar with the amendment of the additional non-instructional day (May 10, 2018) for the purpose of curriculum in-service.
  - The Board agreed to establish an advisory committee to discuss the Board’s goal of Reconciliation. The Board will appoint a Chair to the committee and determine the composition of such committee, to include representatives from the Board, Education Committee, and district staff. The advisory committee will report to the Board through an Education Committee on a regular basis.
