Adobe Creative Cloud

Creative Cloud is a collection of 20+ desktop and mobile apps and services for photography, design, video, web, UX, and more. It is primarily used in secondary schools for web design, graphic arts, yearbook publishing and drafting etc.

Summary of the Privacy Assessment

Data Collected
- Students login with their learn68.ca identities with first and last name
- Location information and service usage data

Personal Information is used for or shared with...
- They use information to provide and maintain the Service and to improve, personalize, and develop the Service.
- They also use personal information to communicate with the user.
- Adobe shares PI with third-party controllers
- Information in the Adobe system can be disclosed to help Adobe to install, implement, maintain, repair, troubleshoot or upgrade the products.

Security
- Administrative, technical and physical security controls are implemented where appropriate, which include: encryption, 2-step verification etc.

Data storage location
- Canadian anonymous workstation accounts are linked to servers in the USA.
- Personal work is stored on local NLPS servers.

Data review/retention
- Students that leave NLPS will have accounts deleted in September of the following school year.
- Requests to cancel accounts may be done at any time by IT through the supervising classroom teacher.

More detail in the complete Privacy Policy

Updated: August 31, 2021