

ESL Library

ESL Library includes english lessons (available for online use), flashcards (clear, well-presented image to elicit, teach and reinforce vocabulary and grammar points using ESL Library's comprehensive flashcard tools), and resources for ESL Students.

Summary of the Privacy Assessment

Data Collected

- The information that you provide when you become a registered user or otherwise complete forms on the Sites, such as your name, email, postal address, educational information, school name, age, group contact information, and interests of children. This may vary depending on the method that the users account is created

Personal Information is used for or shared with...

- The information is used to access the service, improve the users experience, communicate with the user, as well as, meet legal requirements.

Security

- Security includes protecting the physical data storage locations and protection of data through the use of passwords, encryption and firewalls

Data storage location

- Unknown. Company based out of Winnipeg

Data review/retention

- Red River Press will retain the personal information of a registered user for one (1) year from the date of registration for the Service after which point Red River Press will dispose of or destroy the personal information of a registered user unless required to maintain for a longer period to meet legal and regulatory requirements.

More detail in the complete Privacy Policy