THE PURPOSE OF THREAT ASSESSMENT

Nanaimo Ladysmith Public Schools use the violence / threat risk assessment process in order to:

- Ensure the safety of students, staff, parents, and members of the public.
- Ensure a full understanding of the context of any threats that are made.
- Begin to understand the factors that contribute to the threat-maker’s behaviour.
- Be proactive in developing an intervention plan that addresses the emotional and physical safety of the threat-maker and others.

THREAT ASSESSMENT AND TRAUMA RESPONSE

During instances of threat or violence NLPS consults with various organizations to promote healthy and safe communities through education and skill development for professionals, parents, children and youth.

VIOLENCE / THREAT RISK ASSESSMENT

Fair notice and process

Important information that every student and parent needs to know.
THREATS ARE TAKEN SERIOUSLY
Nanaimo Ladysmith Public Schools (NLPS) are committed to safe and supportive environments for all – students, parents and staff.

The district takes all threatening comments and behaviours seriously. Parents and students should be aware of the district’s violence / threat risk assessment protocol.

WHAT IS A THREAT?
- A threat is an expression of intent to do harm or act out violently against someone or something.
- A threat may be verbal, written, drawn, posted on the Internet or made by gesture.

In NLPS, all threats will be taken seriously, investigated and a response provided.

IMPORTANCE OF SAFE SCHOOL CULTURE
Pro-social school programs and/or safe school culture are acknowledged to be imperative and the only way to effectively reduce school violence. Healthy, safe school cultures offer students clearly articulated proactive and pro-social standards of conduct to which all parties are held accountable.

They are environments where positive interactions and social responsibility are actively promoted and valued.

WHAT IS THREAT ASSESSMENT?
Threat assessment is the process that is followed when a school becomes aware of a threat made against a student, staff member or the safety of the school building and its occupants.

Threats may be made in many different ways – graffiti written on a wall; through interaction on social media; in an essay written by a student at school; through an anonymous telephone call; or directly to the individual being threatened.

Whatever the form of the threat, a threat assessment team will investigate and appropriately address the threatening behaviour.

WHO IS ON A THREAT ASSESSMENT TEAM?
The threat assessment team at a school is made up of individuals who have received formal threat assessment training. Members of the team may include the school principal, vice-principal, counsellors, teachers, and representatives of the police, social services and mental health professionals.

Nanaimo Ladysmith Public Schools will follow up on every reported threat.

EVERYONE HAS A DUTY TO REPORT
Often when we read in the media about a violent incident, we learn that the threat-maker had made threats in advance but the threats were not taken seriously.

To keep school communities safe, students, parents, staff and community members must report all threat-related behaviours.

Every threat must be taken seriously, thoroughly investigated with a response and follow-through completed.

WHAT DO PARENTS AND STUDENTS NEED TO KNOW?
- Students and parents need to be aware of the steps the school district will take in responding to a threat.
- Any threats must be reported to the school principal, counsellor or some other responsible adult.
- NLPS will follow up on every reported threat.
- Follow-up may involve the police.
- Interviews will be held with the threat-maker and any other students who may have information about the threat.
- Threatening behaviour may result in discipline for a student.
- Intervention plans may be developed for the student making the threat.
